HIGHWAYS

To discuss any Highways issues regarding White Roding.
Request received for the Council to discuss if it is appropriate for a few removable roadside signs advertising Matching Farmers Market to be displayed in White Roding for approximately six to seven days per month. The Council agreed that they could not deal with or approve this matter as the land was owned by Essex Highways.
Speeding through the village is still a major issue and Speed Indication Signs may be one deterrent District Cllr M Lemon and County Cllr S Barker to be contacted for help and advice on this matter.
